345 Main St, Bairnsdale

Main Street Investment with Further Development Potential

With Mixed Use Zoning, Main Street prominence and a large (862m) block this property represents an immediate income stream with the potential to further develop the site or subdivide some land off STCA. The existing dwelling has been extensively renovated, with rewiring, repainting and replumbing all been done in recent years. There are feature ornate ceiling roses, period architraves, leadlight windows, polished timber floors and a sparkling new bathroom and kitchen. There are five rooms suitable as professional consulting rooms with 3 currently being leased. The property could also be used as a work from home residence. The dwelling is set well forward on the land allowing for a huge rear yard ideal for more buildings and carparking. It even has its own real lane access as well.
