DESIGNED BY FASHAM JOHNSON

This unique home is designed and constructed by Melbourne Home Designers, Fasham Johnson. If you're looking for a spacious home this home will be desirable with two living areas in the main section and an extra living room or larger Bedroom 5 privately situated within the dwelling, its perfect for those looking for zoned style living. The ceiling work over the living area is impressive with highlight windows ensuring adequate sunlight all year round. The centrepiece kitchen looks onto both loungerooms and leads to an undercover alfresco which is picturesque, surrounded by elegant trees, attracting the beautiful, colourful native birds. All main living rooms, master suite and guest room look out onto an amazing view of rolling hills. Off the master suite is a generous size ensuite and walk in robe. Plenty of storage cupboards throughout the home and a roomy laundry to cater for a large family. There is internal access from the garage to the home. In the yard, attached to the garage is an additional room which is currently being used as a workshop/shed but could be a salon or work from home office has a private entrance. Side access to a professionally planned and landscaped rear yard, perfect for storing your boat or caravan. Gas log fire along with split system heating/air-conditioning.
